

Dear Pastor and Church,

July/August 2019

Having been back for a third of our total time here in the States, seeing family and taking opportunity to report back to some of our supporting churches, it has been a blessing but a challenge. Of course we love our family and getting time to see them is priceless, especially since we get back so rarely these days. We also appreciate the faithful support which keeps us on the field and want to express our gratitude to those who sacrificially give and pray for us to be in Slovenia. It has still been difficult to leave behind, for this furlough time, our friends and church family in Slovenia who have become so very dear to us. We miss them and a part of our hearts is still there.

We have been in contact with many of our friends in Slovenia and are encouraged by their faithfulness in our absence. It cannot be easy to have the pastor of your church and leader of your Bible study away for this length of time, but we have put them in the trust of the Holy Spirit to be their Guide and it seems that all is going very well and we are delighted to hear this great news.

For the next two months, September and October, we will be busy on the road most every week reporting back to our supporters and getting a few opportunities to gain some new support. In the little travel that we have done already, we have seen many terrible auto accidents and it is always a reminder of how dangerous the highways can be. So far, we have been in Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska. In a few weeks, we will add Texas to that list, then a multi-week trip to the Southeastern United States and up through the Midwest. It will be many miles of driving and as I asked in the last letter, please do continue to pray for our traveling safety.

Thank you to all of you who faithfully pray for us. It is a great comfort to us and we continually are encouraged to hear of your faithfulness toward us.
